NUMB. 422.

THE
South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday April 17th, to Saturday April 24th, 1742.

Mr. Timothy,

UPON peruſing a Paper inſerted in your laſt Gazette (No. 421) ſigned James Parker and Joſiah Smith, I readily obſerved (as other Readers alſo have done) two or three ambiguous Expreſſions in it, greatly unbecoming a Paper of ſo ſpecious a Pretence, and which, no Doubt, they will readily explain, by ſatisfying the following Queries formed upon them.

Ift Expreſſion. — Some Gentlemen of the Eſtabliſhment.] Q. (1.) What Eſtabliſhment, do they mean? Whether the civil, or religious, or both? 2 Who thoſe ſome Gentlemen of the Eſtabliſhment are, with whom ſuch Names as Theirs may be deem'd of little Weight; ſpecially while they concur with the Biſhop of London, applaud, and recommend his Letters, to ſuch Families as are of the ſame Character and Denomination with themſelves?

IId Expreſſ. — We take this Opportunity] Q. Whether by this Opportunity, they mean only the Opportunity of Gazette No 421; or any other ſort of Opportunity, and what it was, or is?

IIId Expreſſ. — ATTEMPTS of this Nature] Q. (1) Whether by ATTEMPTS of this Nature, they mean only the regular ATTEMPTS, ſpecified by his Lordſhip, viz. by Maſters and Miſtreſſes in their own private Families, or Miſſionaries, or School-maſters, lawfully thereunto authorized, and appointed, purſuant to his Majeſty's Inſtructions, and the Laws of this Province? And (2) If this be the Meaning, what Occaſion they had for addreſſing Superiors, for their Countenance and Protection? Or (3) Do they mean, that under PRETENCE of ATTEMPTS of this Nature, every idle or deſigning Perſon that pleaſes, ſhall be at Liberty to purſue ATTEMPTS not of this, but another and moſt dangerous Nature; viz. gathering Cabals of Negro's about him, without public Authority, at unſeaſonable Times, and to the Diſturbance of a Neighbourhood; and inſtead of teaching them the Principles of Chriſtianity, filling their Heads with a Parcel of Cant-Phraſes, Trances, Dreams, Viſions, and Revelations, and ſomething ſtill worſe, and which Prudence forbids to name?

I ſhall only farther offer to thoſe Gentlemen's Conſideration, whether there be not a more decent and comely Way of Addreſſing Superiors, on ſuch Points, than that of a common News-Paper!

I am, &c.

LONDON.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Holland; with the following Advices of a Great and ſudden Revolution in the Government of the Muſcovite Empire.

HAGUE, December 25.

UPON the twenty third Inſtant in the Evening an Expreſs arrived here from Petersburg, to the Count de Golofkin, and deliver'd him a Packet of Letters, dated the ſixth of this Inſt. in which was a formal Order under the Great Seal, directed to the ſaid Ambaſſador, to inform their High Mightineſſes,

'That the States of the Ruſſias, the Senate, the Synod, 'and the other principal Orders, could bear no longer to 'ler the Supreme Authority remain in the Hands of thoſe, 'who, by a long Series of Acts of Violence, one after another, had uſurp'd it ever ſince the Death of the Empe-'ror Peter I. the Miniſters to whom that Prince had 'committed the Execution of his laſt Will, not having 'perform'd it: That in order to put a Stop to theſe U-'ſurpations, and to reſtore the Crown to the Lawful Heir, 'they had unanimouſly declar'd the Princeſs Elizabeth, 'Daughter of the ſaid Emperor, to be their Sovereign, 'Sole Monarch, and Empreſs: And that her Imperial 'Majeſty at the ſame time gave the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, 'that ſhe would not fail to cultivate that perfect good 'Underſtanding with this State, which has ſubſiſted be-'tween her Predeceſſors and this Republick; and upon 'all Occaſions to give it Proofs of her Affection.

This Order was ſign'd ELIZABETH.

In purſuance hereof the Count Golofkin went the ſame Night to the Penſionary Vander Hein, and then to the Greffier Fagel, to notify the ſame to both thoſe Miniſters. His Excellency has received no other News or Letter whatſoever, ſo that we know not what Changes have been made in the Miniſtry, nor indeed any one Thing that has been tranſacted in this Revolution. All that is given out is, that the Prince Nariſkin, who is in a ſort of Exile, and now at Paris, will ſhortly return to Peterſbourgh; and 'tis thought the new Empreſs will ſoon declare her Marriage.

Mean time 'tis conjectur'd, that this Revolution, and the Reſolution the King of Sardinia has now taken in favour of the King of Spain will haſten a general Peace.

In the Count de Golofkin's Packet came the following Piece, viz.

The Manifeſto of the Empreſs Eliſabeth, Sovereign of all the Ruſſia's.

'We Elizabeth I. Empreſs and Sovereign of all the 'Ruſſias, &c. make known to all and every one by theſe 'Preſents. 'All

'All the World knows that in Conſequence of the 'Letters Patents iſſued the 16th of October 1740, the 'late Grand Lady Empreſs Anne Joannowna appointted, 'before her Deceaſe, her Nephew to ſucceed to the 'Throne of Ruſſia, who was then but a few Months 'old: But, whereas, on Occaſion of his Minority ſeve-'ral Perſons have managed the Affairs of this Empire 'in ſo unbecoming a Manner that many Troubles and In-'conveniences have enſued thereby, as well as home as 'abroad, and might have been follow'd by ſtill greater 'Miſchiefs; our faithful Subjects, the Spiritual and Tem-'poral Eſtates, and in particular our Regiments of Guards, 'have unanimouſly invited us to aſcend the Throne of 'our Fathers, which by Right belongs to us as the near-'eſt Heireſs by our Birth, and thereby to prevent all the 'future Troubles that are to be apprehended: In Con-'ſequence of this Invitation, and by Vertue of the Right 'of Succeſſion, which belongs to us, and which we derive 'from our moſt dear Father and Mother, the Emperor 'Peter the Great, and the Great Lady and Empreſs Ca-'tharine Alexewna, as likewiſe to condeſcend to the una-'nimous Wiſhes of our faithful Subjects, we have moſt 'graciouſly accepted the paternal Crown and the Empire 'of all the Ruſſias, as will be more amply ſet forth in an-'other Manifeſto. In the mean time we have been plea-'ſed to impart this Event to our faithful Subjects, that 'they may in Conſequence thereof take the Oaths of 'Allegiance to us.

'Done at Petersburgh, Dec. 6. 1741.

The above extraordinary and moſt important Event is confirm'd from Berlin and from Hamburgh, with this additional Circumſtance, that there was an Inſurrection amongſt the Populace, who being ſupported by the three Regiments of Guards, the Dutcheſs Regent immediately abdicated the Regency, &c. But we muſt wait for the Particulars of this great Revolution.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 24.

On Friday the 16th Inſtant arrived here Capt. Scott from London, and gave an Account of his ſeeing a Ship aſhore on Cape Roman Shoals, which prov'd to be Capt. Snelling from Boſton, as mentioned in our laſt, upon which Advice Mr. William Yeomans (to whom Snelling was conſign'd) applied to Capt. Haynes, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Flamborough, for Aſſiſtance, which he immediately granted, ordering his Lieutenant, 10 Men and a Boat for that Purpoſe, and at the ſame Time inform'd Mr. Yeomans that he ſhould be glad to ſerve the trading Intereſt of this Province, at any Time.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend at Charles Town in South-Carolina, dated the 10th of February laſt.

'——— Since here is room left I'll fill it up with a lit-'tle News, viz. That Sir Robert is going to lay down his 'Commiſſion as Prime Miniſter, on the 12th Inſtant; the '8th he kiſs'd his Majeſty's Hand, for having him created 'Viſcount and Earl of Orford, and Baron Walpole of 'Houghton.

'From Germany, We find that the Elector of Bavaria 'is elected and crown'd King of the Romans, and Empe-'ror of Germany at Frankfort: He, in Conjunction with 'the King of Prance, and almoſt all the Electors of the 'Empire, except Hanover, are fighting againſt the Queen 'of Hungary, in order to pull the Houſe of Auſtria to 'Pieces. The King of Pruſſia has taken Poſſeſſion of all 'Sileſia, and has now march'd his Troops into Moravia; 'He always acted ſeparately from the other Allies, and 'keeps his Deſigns ſo ſecret, that none of the Courts can 'find out what he is about, 'till he has put his Projects in 'Execution. On the other ſide, the Hungarians, in ge-'neral, have all taken their Oaths to ſtand by the Queen, 'with their Lives and Fortunes, who, joining with the 'Auſtrians, harraſs the Electorate of Bavaria exceeding 'much.'

Extract of a private Letter from Barbados, dated the 25*d of* March laſt.

'——— Capt. William Liſle, in his Majeſty's Ship the 'Scarborough, on this Station, has lately diſtinguiſh'd him-'ſelf, as an active Officer, againſt the Spaniards of Porto-'Rico, where he chaſed aſhore, a large Privateer Sloop '(of that Place;) and three Days after ſunk a fine large 'Snow, as in the following Account of the Engagement, 'viz.

'Saturday, February 20th, 1741 2. Cruiſing to Lee-'ard of Porto-Rico; about Two o'Clock, freſh Gales and 'hazy Weather, we gave Chaſe to a Veſſel, which we 'came up with about four in the Afternoon, and ſuſpected 'her to be a Spaniſh Privateer Snow upon ſeeing them 'throw over board all her Booms, ſpare Yards, Spritt, 'Oars, &c. to clear her Decks for an Engagement;—We 'fired a Nine Pounder at her, and ſhe hoiſted French Co-'lours, but (finding it impoſſible to eſcape) at 5 o'Clock 'ſhe haul'd down the French and hoiſted Spaniſh Colours '(a Token of Defiance) and lay too to Fight, we then gave 'her a Broadſide, which tore her Rigging very much;—'ſhe continued the Engagement 'till half an Hour after 'Nine, (being all the Time without Moon Light) when 'ſhe bore away and we tack'd after her, and coming up a-'long ſide perceiv'd many of her People running fore and 'aft with Lights, in great Confuſion, and the Remainder 'having abandon'd their Arms, were employ'd in pumping, 'ſhe ſeeming to be very leaky; however, we gave her an-'other Broad ſide, which prov'd her laſt, for, chaſing her 'very cloſe 'till Ten, her Lights went out at once, and we 'all ſaw her ſounder about half a Mile diſtant from us.—'She was a beautiful Veſſel, Engliſh built, and we imagine 'they had lately taken her; ſhe was well fitted out, having '16 Carriage and ſeveral Swivel Guns, and without Diſpute 'had all Kinds of Warlike Stores.—They really behav'd 'like Men, much to the Reputation of their Country, and 'we wou'd gladly have ſav'd them, but our Rigging was 'ſo ſhatter'd we could not tack quick enough.—What was 'moſt ſurprizing, was, that among all their Shot (as thick 'as Hail and of all ſorts) we had not one Man kill'd.—'The Privateer had upwards of 200 Men.—Our Main-'Maſt was ſhot quite through, and half divided by a Chain 'ſhot, about 12 Feet above Deck, another in the Main top-'maſt, one Shot in the Fore Maſt, another in the Miſen-'top, and our Barge and Booms were ſhot thro' on both 'ſides, we were alſo much damaged, and had Abundance 'of Rigging cut to Pieces.'

'The Sown, a fifty, and the Pearl, a forty Gun Ship, 'both arrived here from Brazil laſt Month, being part 'of Commodore Anſon's Squadron in the South Sea. 'Theſe two Ships came in with very few Men, and 'thoſe ſickly, ſo that here has been a very hot Preſs; the 'Severn got her Complement, and is gone Home, but the 'Pearl is yet here, and ſtill wants Hands; ſhe intends a 'Cruiſe with Capt. Liſle, among the Spaniſh Ports, as 'ſoon as manned, and the Scarborough's Maſt fiſh'd, where 'the Snow wounded is with the Chain ſhot.——'
